Listen to the band play "Star Spangled Banner" at Paint Lick, Tuesday, the fourth.

Between the call of our county and the call of the factory, this is no time for the idler.

Last week was an ideal one for harvesting and the bulk of it was finished in the country.

Loc at Currey's grocery.

Next Tuesday is the "Glorious Fourth," the banks will be closed, the post office will observe holiday hours and there will be no rural delivery service.

Between the reckless driven automobiles in daytime and the one without lights at night, the pedestrian is kept ever on the alert for fear of being run over.

There will be something doing at Paint Lick, next Tuesday. There will be a band on hand and something doing every minute. Read the advertisement in this issue. "Meet me there."

Barley is being threshed and with suitable weather, the wheat threshing will follow rapidly and the small grain will be out of the way enabling the farmer to give all his attention to his corn and tobacco.

Under the newly enacted laws only hook and line fishing is permissible. The "spidger" and those who are accustomed to drag a big seine when the river gets low had better be careful. The eye of a most vigilant game warden is upon them.

With an abundant blackberry crop in sight sugar is too high to allow sugar in coffee, much less unlimited blackberry jam. However, the far seeing housewife will can the berries and make jam of them when sugar goes down, if such a thing should come to pass.

CLOSE CALL.

Master James Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Gregory, while shooting sparrows with a twenty-two rifle last Monday, one of the balls glanced and struck Mr. Bob Scarbroth who was standing some little distance away. The small bullet only penetrated the clothes however and aside from a sharp sting in the back, he was not otherwise hurt.

LIGHT COURT DAY.

Monday was one of the lightest court days ever seen in Lancaster, farmers being too busy to come to town, consequently the crowd was small and business dull. Several horses were purchased for war purposes at $90. to $127.50. A few mules exchanged hands at $87.50 to $138.

Politics was at low ebb, neither Helm or Montgomery being present.

INDIAN RELIC.

Mr. Dave Pullins, who lived here some eighteen years ago has been on a visit to his old home and his friend, Mr. Jack Adams. Mr. Pullins showed us a most interesting Indian relic found at Berea. It is an arrow made out of an opaque stone showing a perfect Indian head when held up to the light. We have never seen any other arrow made of this kind of stone.

THE REASON WHY.

Why is it that BATSON & WEST are selling
GOODS SO CHEAP?
BECAUSE they buy for CASH and sell for CASH.
BECAUSE they take all discounts.
BECAUSE they have the lowest rent.
BECAUSE they have no clerks to pay.
BECAUSE they do their own work.
THAT IS THE REASON.

CLOUSE.

Mr. Irvine Clouse died at his home at Coy Ky, June 1, 1916.
Mr. Clouse was a devoted member of the Christian church, having become a member of the Scotts Fork church at an early age in life. He was a honest, upright man and loved by all who knew him. He was 53 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by a wife and five children, a brother and sister and a host of friends who mourn his loss. His remains were laid to rest in the Scotts Fork cemetery.

PRIVILEGES AT AUCTION.

Privileges for soft drinks and other stands for the Fourth of July celebration, will be sold to the highest bidder at Paint Lick, Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

EXAMINING TRIAL NOW ON.

As we go to press, the examining trial of Asbie Sebastian, charged with killing Zack Simpson, is being held in the upper court room of the court house. The town is crowded with friends and relatives of both parties and a number of witnesses will be examined, which will probably take up most of the day.

OUT AGAIN, IN AGAIN.

William Gaffney, charged with house breaking and sent to jail several weeks ago to await the action of the next grand jury, gave Uncle Dave Ross the slip last Monday night and made a hasty get-away. Sheriff Tom Ballard was soon on his trail however and in three hours captured him near his home at Flatwoods and returned him to jail.

PAINT LICK WILL CELEBRATE

Patriotism, Preparedness, Pranks and Play will be the order of the day at Paint Lick next Tuesday when that gay little city and her hospitable people open the gates and invite the surrounding country to help them enjoy the "Glorious Fourth." Fun and frolic will be unrestrained and those who stay at home will miss something.

CAN READ IT

WITHOUT "SPECKS."

The Danville Messenger has on a new dress and has changed its form, we are sure it must belong to the feminine gender, so rapid, complete and beautiful has been the change. It is now set in ten point type and Bangs, to say nothing of some of his friends, can read it without his "specks."

DECLARATION IMPORT- ANT IN HISTORY.

We are approaching the end of the first half of the second century since that band of patriots went before the civilized world with the Declaration of Independence, appealing to mankind as a jury for a verdict between the American colonies and the government of Great Britain. The verdict in favor of human rights immediately created public opinion against the rule of tyrants. Today the rights of man cover the earth as the waters the sea and the world owes this marvelous development to those patriots who dared to defy England and a king.

A NEW HEMP BREAKING MACHINE.

A Paris Ky. man has just invented a hemp breaking machine which, of course "breaks out the fibre faster, cheaper and better" than the old hand brake. The farmer however will "have to be shown", for it is almost an annual occurrence for such an invention to make its appearance, and the farmer invariably is compelled to return to the time honored hand power machine.

With the present increased crop and the accompanying increase in price, the growers would welcome the advent of some machine that would get out the fiber more rapidly and with less expense.

LANCASTER BOYS EM- PLOYED IN OHIO CITY.

At least a dozen Lancaster young men, most of them not yet through school, are at work in Akron O. during the summer months. The majority of them are employed by the big Goodrich Rubber Co., one of the largest manufacturers of rubber products in the country. Mr. Givens P. Terrill is dean of the Lancaster force, and also has a good position with the Goodrich people. The boys are all "making good", working hard, making good salaries, and many of them have already won well earned promotions, accompanied by increase of salary. While it is not "old Kentucky" and the biscuit served at their meals (?) are not just like "mother used to make", yet they are all satisfied and are sticking close to their jobs and winning unstinted commendation from their employers.

The following being a list of these would-be self-supporters:—Glass Carrier, Zan Robinson, Paul Elliott, William Mac Elliott, Joe Kavanaugh, Allen Johnson, James Woods, John Eldridge, Willie Bell West, Bert Embury and Rice Terrill.

LOTS OF HEMP.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS WITH PARIS FIRM FOR ONE HUNDRED TONS.

One of the largest deals in hemp made in Kentucky in many years was closed last week when E. F. Spears & Sons, of Paris, signed a contract with the United States government to furnish them over one hundred tons of doubled dressed hemp for a sum exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars. All the hemp contracted for is now in the hands of the Paris firm and shipment will begin at once. The containing bidders were Winchester firms. It is claimed that this sale will not affect the future price of hemp as it is said the demand for the coming crop, which will be unusually large will be the greatest in the history of the industry. The yield in Bourbon county alone this season will amount to over twelve hundred acres.

U. S. SENATORS

HONOR THE MEMORY OF WILLIAM O. BRADLEY.

On last Saturday, notwithstanding the urgency of war resolutions and the press of other business incidents to these troublous times, the U. S. Senate paused to do honor to the memory of the late Senator W. O. Bradley. Party lines were obliterated for the time being, political differences were laid aside and all joined in doing honor to the memory of Kentucky's illustrious son. Senator Ollie M. James opened the ceremonies, and they were closed by a tribute from Sen. J. C. W. Beckham, who after a close of his remarks, moved the assembly adjourn in honor of Sen. Bradley's memory. Senators Kern, of Indiana, Smoot, of Utah, Works of California, Townsend of Michigan, Nelson of Minnesota and Warren of Wyoming, republicans, and Hamilton of Illinois, Williams of Mississippi, Overman of North Carolina and Sens. James and Beckham of Kentucky took part in the memorial services, while most of the Kentucky members and a number of prominent visitors were present in the Senate chamber. Dr. John G. South and wife of the daughter of Sen. Bradley of Frankfort, Ky. Mr. E. C. Barnard, who married Mrs. Juliet Rogers, a niece of the Senator, together with many Kentucky friends were in the galleries during the proceeding.

The ceremonies were impressive, his old colleagues and associates, men who have reached the top rank in political life, irrespective of their political faith, joined in paying tribute to the memory of the man, who was termed by one of the most genial of men, a prince among his fellows, a distinguished lawyer, a great orator and a profound statesman, whose memory would be cherished as he was loved in life."

ENLIST IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH PRESIDENT WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY, OR SHUT UP.

Recruiting officers were here from Richmond last Saturday seeking to enlist men to fill out the Richmond company, which will in all likelihood, along with other Kentucky troops, be sent to the border and perhaps see service in Mexico in the event of war. They succeeded in securing four recruits at this place.

A notable incident of their visit was the fact that among those who answered the call were none of those who are so frequently heard to make adverse criticism of the policy of the Administration toward our southern neighbor. There are a great many who are heard to long and loudly exclaim against "watchful waiting", to proclaim what would have happened had "so-and-so been present", or to declare that we should have long since have declared war against our rebellion ridden neighbors, but when the call came and they were given an opportunity to show their patriotism by upholding a doctrine which they have so long advocated, verbally, they sought quick and sure cover. These people are anxious for war, provided always that someone else does the fighting, but when the time comes they are not to be found.

Our president has sought by all honorable means to lead this country along paths of peace, has exercised much forbearance, during all of which time these blatant have been proclaiming for war, and now when forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, and there seems a probability of hostilities, they who we might first expect to join the ranks to protect their country and avenge its wrongs, have sought the dark places away from the call of the bugle and the eye of their fellow man.

PUTTING IT AWAY.

[Prepared by the department of agriculture.]

BESIDES milk, it is highly important that the child also get plenty of good, well cooked bread and other cereal foods, enough meat, fish, poultry, eggs or meat substitutes, such as thoroughly cooked dried beans, butter and other wholesome fats, and particularly vegetables and fruits. Sugar also is valuable, and the child should get simple sweets, but not between meals or at times and in such quantities that it will interfere with his appetite for normal food.

Milk, being a liquid, is sometimes classed with water, tea and coffee simply as a beverage by those who do not understand its value as food. This is a great mistake. If all the water were to be driven off from a quart of tea or coffee almost nothing would be left, and the little that remained would have little or no value as food. If, on the other hand, the water were driven off from a quart of whole milk there would be left about half a cupful of the very best food substances, including butter fat, a kind of sugar not so sweet as granulated sugar and known as "milk sugar," and also materials which are needed to make muscles, bones, teeth and other parts of the body. All these valuable food substances are ordinarily either dissolved or floating in the water of milk.

Besides all this nourishment, milk contains a very small amount of a substance or substances now thought to help the body of the child to make good use of other foods. For this reason milk is often called "growth promoting." Apparently nothing can serve so well as the basis for the diet of the healthy child.

Compared with most other foods milk contains much lime, but very little iron. Spinach and other green vegetables and egg yolks are, on the other hand, very rich in iron. This is one reason why combinations of egg yolks and milk and of vegetables and milk are recommended so often for children's diet.

When milk is given to babies the child is usually taken from it. It is safe to do this for all young children. Teach your child to take a quart of milk daily. When milk is used as a drink it should be sipped, not gulped down.

Delicious Salad.

One quart of finely cut apples, one pint of watercress, one Neufchatel cheese, one-half cupful of French dressing or one cupful of mayonnaise, four stuffed olives. The watercress is picked from the stems and mixed with the apples. Put in salad bowl, which is lined with shredded lettuce. Rub the cheese through strainer or fruit press, spread over top and cover with French dressing or mayonnaise. Garnish with four stuffed olives cut into three rings.

Beautiful Tresses.

Fresh air is as necessary to the health of the hair as it is to the health of the lungs. The woman who is not guided by this truth has hair which, as a rule, is "matted down" and of an unattractive shade. The outdoor girl, whose coiffure is blown about by the wind, usually has a head of hair that is full of life and vigor and its coloring is fine. Fresh air and plenty of brushing, with the shampoo and gentle massaging of the scalp, will often make "sickly" hair healthy.

For Hot Weather Wear Try This Picturesque Sunshade

THE small hat will always be a hallmark of certain types of good dressing. Meanwhile summer suns are calling out a variety of huge brimmed hats, especially for sports. The one pictured is especially chic for beach wear, a novelty straw faced with salmon pink crape and banded with a wreath of padded leaves, glistening berries and pastel flowers.

Neatly Put.

A little girl was learning the Golden Text for the next Sunday's lesson. Closing the book, she began, "Wine is a mocker; strong drink is raging, and—ah, and ah," when her little sister, who was at play, but had partially caught the words, thinking to help her out, said, "And who's over is seated nearby is not wise."

Reform.

A small tailor shop on the Bowery burned out, and the tailor moved to the next block. The following morning after the fire the following appeared in the window of the wrecked store: "Will be open for business at No. 2 street on December 9, and will be your honest friend when alterations are complete."

DON'T GO TO BED

WITH COLD FEED

Says: "Often Brings On Attacks Of Acute Rheumatism.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and people who are subject to attacks of rheumatism should never go to bed with cold feet.

A whole lot is being said about taking salts and effervescent tablets for rheumatism and sciatica, but those who suffer sharp twinges and painful swollen joints need something powerful to overcome their piteous suffering.

Any broad-minded druggist will tell you that one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day is driving more rheumatism out of afflicted people than all the salts on earth. Right in this neighborhood R. E. McRoberts and all druggists sell large quantities of it, and it's the surest and most inexpensive remedy—about 50 cents a bottle.

Federal Inquiry or Railroad Strike?

Faced by demands from the conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen that would impose on the country an additional burden in transportation costs of $100,000,000 a year, the railroads propose that this wage problem be settled by reference to an impartial Federal tribunal.

With these employees, whose efficient service is acknowledged, the railroads have no differences that could not be considered fairly and decided justly by such a public body.

Railroads Urge Public Inquiry and Arbitration

The formal proposal of the railroads to the employees for the settlement of the controversy is as follows:

"Our conferences have demonstrated that we cannot harmonize our differences of opinion and that eventually the matters in controversy must be passed upon by other and disinterested agencies. Therefore, we propose that your proposals and the proposition of the railroads be disposed of by one or the other of the following methods:

1. Preferably by submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the only tribunal which, by reason of its accumulated information bearing on railway conditions and its control of the revenue of the railways, is in a position to consider and protect the rights and equities of all the interests affected, and to provide additional revenue necessary to meet the added cost of operation in case your proposals are found by the Commission to be just and reasonable; or, in the event the Interstate Commerce Commission cannot, under existing laws, act in the premises, that we jointly request Congress to take such action as may be necessary to enable the Commission to consider and promptly dispose of the questions involved; or
2. By arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Federal law" (The Newlands Act).

Leaders Refuse Offer and Take Strike Vote

Leaders of the train service brotherhoods, at the joint conference held in New York, June 1-15, refused the offer of the railroads to submit the issue to arbitration or Federal review, and the employees are now voting on the question whether authority shall be given these leaders to declare a nation-wide strike.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is proposed by the railroads as the public body to which this issue ought to be referred for these reasons:

No other body with such an intimate knowledge of railroad conditions has such an unquestioned position in the public confidence.

The rates the railroads may charge the public for transportation are now largely fixed by this Government board.

Out of every dollar received by the railroads from the public nearly one-half is paid directly to the employees as wages; and the money to pay increased wages can come from no other source than the rates paid by the public.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, with its control over rates, is in a position to make a complete investigation and render such decision as would protect the interests of the railroad employees, the owners of the railroads, and the public.

A Question For the Public to Decide

The railroads feel that they have no right to grant a wage preferment of $100,000,000 a year to these employees, now highly paid and constituting only one-fifth of all the employees, without a clear mandate from a public tribunal that shall determine the merits of the case after a review of all the facts.

The single issue before the country is whether this controversy is to be settled by an impartial Government inquiry or by industrial warfare.

WARNING TO PUBLIC.

All persons who have not had Typhoid Fever should have themselves immunized immediately as this is the time of year for typhoid fever to get in its work. Bad water and unsanitary conditions bring about disease. Immunizing bills are cheaper than Dr.'s bills, nurses bills and undertakers bills, besides suffering the ravages of this disease.

NEW ANTI-SEINE AND NET LAW NOW IN FORCE

The act passed by the last session of the Kentucky Legislature for the protection of the fish in the streams of this State became effective Wednesday, Circular letters have been sent out by Executive Agent J. Q. Ward, to all the counties notifying fishermen that it would be unlawful to catch fish except with rod, line and hook, hand lines, set lines or trot lines. Persons attempting to catch fish by any other means will be subject to a fine of not less than $15 nor more than $100, for each offense.
The new law prohibits the use of wing nets, set nets, seine, trap, trammel net, dip net, or any other kind of a net or contrivance that will materially hinder the passage of the fish in any stream in the state. The use of dynamite or other forms of explosives in the streams is also forbidden under the law. Shooting of fish is also prohibited.

DEATHS AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.

"Aunt" Minerva Alcorn and "Aunt" Edna Doty, two highly respected colored women and Tom Evans a colored man died last week and their remains were laid to rest in the Lancaster colored cemetery.

THE PATRIOT'S MILITARY CREED.

(By Capt. James A. Moss, U.S.A.)

I believe in Peace, but in Peace with Honor and Self-Respect.

I believe that war is a terrible thing that should be avoided, if possible, but I also believe that there are things in this world worse than war, and Peace without Honor and Self-Respect is one of them.

I believe in what the honor of my Country stands for—Honor, Justice, Truth, Liberty, Humanity.

I believe in the Duty of every American to uphold the Flag and what it stands for and I believe in the Duty of every able-bodied American to prepare himself in a Military way for this Responsibility.

I believe in Personal Preparedness; by which I mean if I am ever needed to rest in the Sister, my Mother, my Home and my Country I will be prepared to do so.

I believe in National Preparedness, by which I mean my Country being Prepared to uphold what the Flag stands for and to defend itself if attacked.

I believe that Citizenship carries with it Obligations as well as Privileges, and I believe that Military Service is one of the most important of these obligations.

I believe in the benefits of Military Training; I believe that it strengthens the body, benefits the health, improves the mind, and teaches obedience, respect for law and order, patriotism, courtesy, honor, loyalty, manliness, thoroughness, system, cleanliness, organization and team work. In short, I believe in Military Training because it makes for Efficiency and better Citizenship.

RECKLESS AUTOMOBILISTS. A WARNING.

The majority of the automobile owners of the town and county are very careful and adhere strictly to the laws provided for their government, as well as keeping an ever watchful eye for the safety of the public. However, there are some who seem to think that the streets and thoroughfares were made for their sole and especial benefit, and have an utter disregard for all lives intended for their government.

There is a maximum of speed to be observed both in town and county, but this does not worry them, they are more concerned in ascertaining just how fast they can go. The law says light on machines must burn "between sunset and sunrise," but notwithstanding this law, many cars travel the streets at night without lights of any description. There is also a law providing for horns of some means of apprising the public of the approach of a machine. This is also ignored and you know they are coming, by the brush of air as they pass you.

To use a common expression, they have "been getting away with it" so far, have ignored and infringed these laws with impunity, but such will not be always the case, a halt will be called some time. We are inclined to the belief that the stoppage will be the outcome of some serious accident, mayhap the loss of life, let us hope not, but at the present gait they are taking, such a thing is not unlikely.

Better heed this timely warning, obey the laws which have been placed upon the statute books for your government, the same as you obey other laws, get it out of your heads that the streets and roads belong to other vehicles as well as automobiles, and share them equally; have a care for the pedestrian, who also has his rights, in other words, have a due regard for the safety of the general public, think of something else beside your own pleasure.

WILEY SUCCEEDS TERRELL.

Frankfort, Ky., June 28—Rodman Wiley, of Georgetown, chief bridge engineer in the Road Department, was appointed Commissioner of Roads today by Gov. Stanley, succeeding R. C. Terrill, who has been at the head of the department since its creation in 1912.

CATTLE SALE.

Mr. J. F. Adams weighed up 45 head of cattle which he had sold to Center Brothers this morning which averaged about 1417. This was the best bunch of cattle shipped from here this summer. The price paid was 84 cents a pound.

J. P. Bourne bought five rice mules here last Monday at an average of $140 a head.

HOWARD.

Mrs. Alvin Howard died at her home near Salem in Madison county on last Friday, and her remains were placed to rest in the Salem cemetery. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Carpenter, of Preachersville, who survive her, together with her husband and five children, and eight sisters and two brothers. Among the sisters are Mrs. T. M. Howard, Mrs. J. W. Aker, Mrs. Pendleton Williams and Mrs. O. R. Carpenter of Lancaster.

The deceased was a devoted wife and mother and her loss is indeed a great one. She was a consistent member of the Christian church. The hearts of a vast number of friends and relatives go out in deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives.

PUBLIC SALE OF LAND AUGUST 1ST.

Geo. B. Robinson as executor will sell the real estate and personal property of the late Mrs. Rebecca J. West, at public auction on August 1st, next. This farm contains about 283 acres and is considered one of the best farms in the county. At the same time all live stock and farming implements will be sold but no household or kitchen furniture. Full details of the sale will appear in the next four issues of the Central Record.

WAR SITUATION.

It was announced Tuesday night in Washington, that unless Gen. Carranza surrenders the twenty-three American troops held prisoners in Chihuahua City before to-night President Wilson probably will go before Congress tomorrow to ask for authority to force their release. The State Department had no intimation last night as to when a reply to the note sent Sunday demanding immediate release, might be expected.

Prompt compliance by Congress with any request the President may make as to Mexico was foreshown in Washington by the calm which prevailed in both houses. Although measures designed to prepare for war were under consideration and the corridors of the Capitol jammed with rumors, there was no excitement, and discussion of the subject on the floor was avoided. The legislative branch of the Government was plainly waiting to do its part when what the majority regarded as inevitable should come. Meanwhile mobilization goes on, four infantry companies, the machine gun company and one-half of the medical corps, of the First Regiment, of Louisville, and nearly the whole of the Third Regiment of Kentucky guards will be in camp at Fort Thomas today or en route to the camp.

The Second Regiment and the last battalion of the first cannot go until the tents are up. The mobilization of Kentucky troops begins in earnest today. Gov. Stanley is urging haste in the matter.

POTATO SCAB.

Formaldehyde Solution Best For Treating the Seed Tubers.

The spore or germ of potato scab is carried on the seed, thus infecting the next crop. The spores will also live in the soil, and for that reason a field that has grown scabby potatoes should not be planted with the same crop for a few years.

Lime and manure do not cause scab, as some suppose, but they do produce conditions in the soil that favor the development of scab. It is best to apply lime or limestone after the potato crop has been harvested. Manure will do less injury if applied the year before.

W. L. State of the Connecticut Agricultural college suggests that not only the potatoes should be treated for scab, but also all bags, boxes, baskets or pails that are to contain the seed after treating, by sprinkling them with formaldehyde solution.

The formaldehyde solution (formalin 40 per cent) is the best for treating the seed potatoes. Make up a solution at the rate of one pint of formalin to thirty gallons of water. Soak the untreated seed for two hours. It is best to treat seed potatoes just before planting time so they may be cut immediately after soaking.

STRAWBERRY CULTURE.

There are two general cultural methods of handling strawberries. One is to cultivate them clean throughout the year, and the other is to mulch them lightly with straw during the winter and plow this under after the fruit has been picked next spring.

When clean cultivation is used the cultivation is discontinued during the harvesting season in order to facilitate picking. Some growers grow the berries in hills, while some grow them in a matted row. It is difficult to say which is best, as both have good success. The great advantage of the straw mulch is that it gives the berries something to lie on and keeps them out of the dirt and enables one to pick them when the ground is fairly wet and adds organic matter to the soil.

Every year after the picking season it is necessary to cut out a great many of the plants, as they will have covered the ground pretty well by that time. This is usually done by throwing a furrow away from each side of the row and then working it back immediately. This leaves the matted row from which the plants may be removed if they are too thick. It is usually thought most profitable to renew the planting every three or four years.
—Oklahoma Station.

A Handy Garden Marker.

A handy garden marker can be made of the scrap material found on nearly every farm, and it will prove a time saver during the planting time season and more efficient than using two stakes and a long cord for every row that must be marked. The marking pieces should be placed at distances apart depending on the width of the rows.

rows. Twelve or fifteen inches will usually be the best distance, which will make the marker either four feet or six feet in width.

An old pair of buggy thills will be satisfactory handles if they can be obtained, or strong, slender branches from trees will do fully as well if they are straight and six or eight feet in length. If the soil has been finely pulverized in readiness for the garden seed this marker will make straight lines by simply pulling it over the soil. If the ground is not smooth and rather stony it will be necessary to weight down the marker, and this can be done by placing stones in a sack and tying them to the frame.—Michigan Farmer.

PATRONAGE VERSUS PATRIOTISM.

What a sight for gods and men are some of the freak politics coming to the surface this history making year! Behold our impending war with Mexico! European entangling complications that are requiring the highest and best thought of the soberest, sanest and best poised statesmanship that the Nation can muster. Commercial problems of a magnitude never before imagined. And yet, forsooth the successful handling of questions of such pith and moment is obscured or thrown into total eclipse by reason of the failure of some man's friend to connect with a fourth class post office paying from $10 to $40, a year salary, or because some rural route was run over the wrong road, or because the wrong man was appointed the temporary carrier.

To an outsider looking in, this must be the ridiculous reduced absurdum. But, it truly represents the present political predicaments of the President and the members of Congress who have become with him their share of the great responsibilities in part mentioned. Patronage versus patriotism! Patronage! Think of it! Rather the absurdity of thinking of it in a year when all creation rocks with the regathering storm that may mean the beginning of this world's ending.

We repeat, American politics has its inexplicable tangents. Every one admits that it is impossible to give every office seeker a job. And yet because a congressman cannot do so he is pilloried. He may have fought the good fight, and kept the faith. He may have refused to wear the big boss's collar. The "System" may not have been able to control him. He may have exhausted the salary and emoluments of his office in financing his campaigns and in legitimate contributions to his party's nominees. His record may have been unassailable for straight forwardness, and he may have advocated the measures that have met with the unchallenged approval of all parties and all the people. Yet, if he has been unable to pass the pie, his failure so to do is the unpardonable sin, the unforgivable crime for which he must be crucified.

What of wars. What of world-puzzling diplomatic equations. What does the winning of continental commerce and finance, what does the successful handling of other kindred world problems amount to compared with the artistic appointment of the postmaster at "Some Body's Crossroads" for the selection of the "watch" for a moonshine distillery?

SUFFERED WITH STOMACH ILLS NOW MR. EVENS. OF LEXINGTON HAS NO TROUBLE WHATSOEVER.

"I suffered with my stomach for a long time but after taking Tanlac I got immediate relief" said Mr. James Y. Evans, 343 Georgetown street, Lexington, Ky. Mr. Evans is an undertaker in the employ of Milward & Co.

"I feel that I cannot praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for me. I want to advise anybody suffering with stomach trouble to give it a chance." Tanlac is a tonic which aids digestion promotes healthy, refreshing sleep and strengthens the nerves.

There is hardly a portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system.

Next it enables a weak, worn out stomach to thoroughly digest its food, permitting the assimilation of the nourishing products to be converted into blood; bone and muscle.

It overcomes, it is said, that great exciting cause of disease, weakness. It renders the body vigorous and elastic. It keeps the mind clear and energetic and throws off the symptoms of nervousness and indigestion. It builds up the constitution run down by disease and mental and physical overwork, quickens convalescence and is an unfailing source of comfort to all sufferers from such trouble.

Tanlac is being specially introduced in Lancaster at R. E. McRoberts. Tanlac may be obtained in the nearby cities. Paint Lick, J. N. Metcalf; Bryantville, Becker & Ballard; Little Hickman, Collier & Bruner; Berea, S. E. Welch; Stanford, Penny's Drug Store; Junction City, Reynolds and Evans; Richmond, H. L. Perry & Son; Crab Orchard, Lyne Bros.; Burgin, G. T. Schofield; Danville, John S. Wells, R. E. McRoberts, Lancaster, and W. C. West, Silver Creek.

Mrs. James A. Royston gave an elaborate noon-day repast on Monday, at her home in Hill Court, the dinner being in compliment to Mrs. R. M. Robinson of Frankfort, Indiana.

Mrs. E. C. Gaines was hostess Tuesday at a 6 o'clock course luncheon, the honoree of the affair being Mrs. R. M. Robinson, of Frankfort, Ind. The following composed the circle of guests: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Royston, Rev. H. S. Hudson and Mrs. Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Elliott, and Mrs. Mattie Duncan.

Our office force has been severely handicapped this week by the illness of our efficient typist, Miss Mary Reid. We are glad to state however, that she has about recovered.

Mr. N. Miller and Mrs. L. N. Miller have returned home from a visit to Mrs. N. Millers daughters and sons in Chertons West Va. Mrs. L. N. Miller stopping off in Richmond for a visit to her parents.

Messrs L. G. Davidson, J. W. Smith, A. D. Joseph, W. A. Dickerson, W. B. Ball, Theo Currey and G. M. Lyons attended the meeting of the Kentucky Retail Merchants' Association at Georgetown, Tuesday.

Miss Katherine Craig, of New Orleans who has been on a visit in the Northwest was visitor of Mrs. M. D. Lackey and Miss Jeanie Lackey on last Sunday and was accompanied here by Mrs. Herbert Price and Miss Mary Lackey of Danville.

Master John McRoberts Mount will be the happy little host this afternoon, Thursday, of a party of baby juveniles, dainty invitations having been issued for the unique affair. His winsome little cousin, Miss Marjorie Ware Spindle, of Norfolk, Va., being the attractive honoree.

Miss Lena Bright presided at a handsome dinner Sunday, the guests at the festal board being Mr. and Mrs. Jack Doty, and Miss Mary Walker, of Lexington, Mr. Fleece Robinson, of Lancaster and Columbus, Ga., Mr. Robinson being considered the guest of his devoted little friend, Master Gayle Doty.

Mrs. Jennie Faulkner White, of Washington, D. C. is the guest of Mrs. Givens Terrill. Mrs. White came to Kentucky to attend Centre College Commencement at Danville where her son, John Faulkner White graduated with the honors of his class; this is a matter of gratification to Garrardites, as young Mr. White comes of Garrard ancestry.

Miss Jennie Dickerson, until recently a resident of the Lancaster vicinity and an efficient Garrard school teacher, was married Wednesday at high noon, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Dickerson in Richmond, to Dr. Russell Prewitt of Elkton, Ky. Miss Minnie Guiley, Miss Minerva Cox, Mrs. Rozella Dunn, Mrs. Carrie Davidson, Mrs. Maggie Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Soper of this city and vicinity attended the wedding.

Miss Bertha Oviatt of Providence Rhode Island and John L. Arnold of this city were married Saturday the 24 in Providence, R. I. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. Wesley T. Oviatt. Mr. Arnold is a well known citizen of this city. Their many friends wish them great success.

Mr. Richard Anderson and Miss Maggie Arnold, both of the Preachersville section drove into town last Sunday afternoon and were quietly married at the Methodist Parsonage by Rev. S. H. Politt. This happy young couple are both 23, and marrying on Sunday, we hope "better the day, better the deed" will hold good in their case. Mrs. Anderson is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Arnold. Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. Dave Anderson, upright, industrious and in every way capable of making happy his "bonnie bride".

The "Gold-Standard"— —in Tires

GOODRICH Tire Values are not at all "Accidental." They spring from Conditions which are logical as the Laws of the Universe.

The best-intentioned Tire Manufacturer cannot AVOID being heavily handicapped when competing against them.

Because, —Goodrich "Conditions" summarize into this:—

1st—The longest Experience in Mfg. the Product.

2nd—The greatest Leverage on purchasing of Raw Materials at lowest prices, through ability to take largest quantities.

3rd—The lowest Cost of Manufacturing, —through largest VOLUME of Output.

4th—The clearly-demonstrated INTENTION to give Consumers and Dealers the full benefit of the large ECONOMIES resulting from possession of the three Cardinal Advantages above defined.

THE Product of such a Rubber-Concern,—when marketed under such conditions,—giving the benefit of such huge Economies to Consumers may well, and logically, be considered—the "GOLD-STANDARD" in Tire Values.

Therefore:—

—When you pay MORE than the Goodrich Fair-List prices, here printed, for ANY Fabric Tire, you are merely "contributing" the difference.

Because,—You CANNOT get "better" Fabric Tires,—at ANY price!

Test them thoroughly,—and see!

AID THE KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Lancastrian Shows You The Way to Avoid It.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, back-ache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a tested remedy is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years, have been tested in thousands of cases.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, act now. Dropsy or Bright's disease may set in and make neglect dangerous. Read this Lancaster testimony:

W. C. Davis, tailor, Public Square, Lancaster, says: "My kidneys were disordered and I suffered from pains across the small of my back. The irregular kidney action obliged me to arise at night. I have considerable bending to do in my work and I became easily tired and languid. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Davis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write for: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper. 50c.

IT'S THREE YEARS OLD But Mrs. Walter Says It's Just As Good Today As When It Was First Made.

Three years ago Mrs. Walter testified to complete relief from kidney ills. Later she says that there has not been the slightest return of the trouble. Lancaster sufferers will take a deal of comfort in Mrs. Walter's statement.

Read what she says: Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill St., Lancaster, says: "Whenever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at R. E. McRoberts & Son's Drug Store, bring me instant relief. At one time I feared that I had serious kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and gave unmistakable evidence of disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills in a short time made me kidney normal."

HASN'T SUFFERED SINCE. OVER THREE YEARS LATER. Mrs. Walter said: "My kidneys have been in excellent condition since giving my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Walter has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

One Of Central Kentuckys Best Values In Farms Offered For Sale.

R. E. Hughes, of Louisville, has placed in our hands for sale, his farm of 178 acres, one mile from the Lancaster Court House on the Lexington pike. Fronts one-fourth mile on the Lexington pike and one mile on the Sugar Creek pike. Formerly part of the blue grass farm of the Beazley Brothers, recent owners of McGrathiana Farm in Fayette county and now owners of Shenandoah Farm, near Lexington.

This Hughes Farm Is As Rich As Double Cream.

It has been improved by the present owner and made richer yearly with the idea in view of erecting a home thereon, for a family residence, but a decision just made not to leave the metropolitan districts and an excellent opportunity offered to invest the money now in the farm in his home city to a much better advantage has changed his plans, hence this advertisement.

More Than Thirty Dollars Per Acre In Improvements Put On In Past Two Years.

- 110 acres in grass.
- 68 acres in fresh cultivation following meadow.
- Four-room dwelling, with large smoke-house, large chicken house, cistern and fenced-in yard and garden.
- 200-ton concrete silo.
- Barn that will hold 12 acres of tobacco.
- New corn crib.
- 5000-gallon circular concrete pool, fed by underground pipe from never-failing spring.

Rights by deed to water from big spring on adjoining farm. Virtually cleared of stumps during present ownership.

New cross fencing divides farm into four convenient fields. Has had recent benefit of more than a car load of artificial fertilizer and grazing cattle, as well as manure spread from fattening cattle fed in barn past 18 months.

Best Available Farm Close To Lancaster Market.

New road construction, under State supervision, of Lexington pike gives the farm a boulevard frontage.

Offered As A Whole For $26,700, or Divided.

53 acres in front, now in fresh cultivation, following meadow, with spring and concrete pool, fronting on both Lexington and Sugar Creek pikes. One of the finest sites in Central Kentucky for a home, $10,000.

125 acres in three fields, 110 acres grass and 15 acres in fresh cultivation following meadow, having a frontage of three-fourth mile on Sugar Creek pike; dwelling and outbuildings, barn, corn crib, silo and pond included in this acreage, $17,000.

Or, will divide front 53 acres into two tracts: 25 acres at corner of Lexington and Sugar Creek pikes (nearer Lancaster) containing spring and concrete pool, for $5,200; 28 acres, fronting Lexington pike, transferring deeded rights to spring just over fence on adjoining farm West, for $5,200.

LIBERAL TERMS: Reasonable cash payment and bankable notes. Phone, write or call in person for further facts.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND KEEP YOUR JOB.

Tens of thousands of men are losing their hair daily and are ignoring the fact. Many a man has lost his job because he lost his hair.

Dust and dirt make dandruff and dandruff makes heads bald and bald heads are the first to go when business is poor.

Wash your hair at least once a week with any pure soap and every other night apply Parisian Sage rubbing it thoroughly into the scalp.

Parisian Sage will save your hair; it will remove every trace of dandruff and banish scalp itch and make your head feel fine.

The cost of a large bottle is trifling but the benefits are very great as every druggist well knows. R. E. McRoberts cheerfully guarantees Parisian Sage to you.

Bleucher 46158, record 2:29, trial mile 2:14, half in 1:06, last quarter in 32 seconds, is a handsome seal brown horse, and will weigh 1100 pounds. He greatly resembles his good sire Silent Brook and is out of Clayo, by the great Futurity sire Moko.

Foreign demand has exhausted the supply and we may expect better prices for our horses in the future. Our advice to mare owners is to breed their mares and to breed them to stallions of merit and proven worth as sires. Bleucher is just the type to produce the colts that will supply the demand. His colts have proven fine, with nice head and neck and plenty of bone and conformation. This great trotting Stallion will make the season of 1916 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky, at

It can be seen by the pedigree that this horse belongs to a family of champions, his sire, Rex McDonald being the world's champion of champions. On his dam's side he traces to Montrose who was champion for eighteen years. This horse has the finest shoulders and withers that I have ever seen, splendid bone, short back. His neck, head and ears are in the right place. He also has the best shoulder motion and hock action of any horse that I have ever had in my stable.

Polka Dots Are Now Rivalling Stripes and Checks

HER HOUSE GOWN.

THIS quaint frock is especially appropriate for the season. The fabric is foulard, a cinnamon brown on a deep cream background. A bodice of rather old fashioned design has full sleeves, an organdie collar and ribbon girdle. What looks like braid on the full skirt is really an organdie piping outlining the polka dots.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE.

Sift together one pint of flour, one teaspoonful of salt, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder (level) and chop in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Wet with milk for a soft dough (about one half cupful usually). Bake twelve minutes.

Split and butter and put the following between and on top: One cupful of crushed strawberries, one cupful of sugar, one beaten egg white. Beat all together until firm. Trim the top of cake with whole berries or some cut in halves and pour thick cream over the top.

TO SERVE WITH DUCK.

The apple sauce which is served with the ducklings should be made from tart apples, cooked down until they are thick, but whipped until they are perfectly smooth and free from all lumps. The squash, after boiling, should be mashed and well seasoned with plenty of butter. The spinach may be cooked in the usual way, only do not cover it while boiling, as that fades it. After it is cooked it may be chopped, drained carefully, seasoned and panned, then served on a hot plate garnished with slices of hard boiled egg. The Maryland sweet potatoes are prepared in the usual way.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

One of the most interesting features of the recent Democratic convention at St. Louis is the fact that it took lovely woman to force the only roll call demanded on the national platform, as well as to inspire the only real excitement that marked the convention.

"Votes for Women" was the issue that stirred up things. The Mexican plank, nailed in at the last minute by the platform builders, did not create a ripple. "Americanism" and "preparedness" received polite ovations, but it remained for the woman suffrage plank to start a real fracas.

Headed by Gov. Ferguson of Texas, the anti-endorsers to wrench the suffrage plank from the platform. But President Wilson's feelings on the subject, as presented to the convention by Senator Walsh of Montana, were not to be ignored. And so, after a three-hour battle in which the term "political expediency" was used with telling effect, the anti's were routed by a vote of 888½ to 181½.

The vote, however, does not tell the real story of the battle, which was one of the most vigorous and picturesque ever staged at a national Democratic convention. Fifteen women delegates fought from the floor on the side of the pro-suffragists, while hundreds of their sisters waved yellow pennants and cheered them on from the balconies. A thunderstorm that almost drowned out the voices of the delegates as they answered the roll call brought both the suffrage battle and the convention to a most melodramatic finish.

THE SUFFRAGE PLANK.

"We recommend the extension of franchise to the women of the country by the states upon the same terms as to men."

It was the above little plank that inspired Gov. Ferguson of Texas to mount the platform in the Coliseum and read a minority report withholding the party support from the ladies who want the vote. That the Democratic party should scorn the political exigencies of the situation and defy the 12 western states in which women vote was the burden of his argument. Sharing the same opinion with him were C. L. Bartlett of Georgia, Stephen B. Fleming of Indiana and "Jim" Nugent of New Jersey, the old-time enemy of President Wilson. This trio signed the minority report with the Texas.

Lined up against Gov. Ferguson, who acted as spokesman for the minority, were Senator Stone of Missouri, Senator Pittman of Nevada and Senator Walsh of Montana.

Senator Walsh did not mince matters in his argument for the adoption of the suffrage plank. He stated plainly the adoption of the plank was necessary as a matter of political expediency, adding that the present political situation in this country was a condition and not a theory.

"The states in which women vote control 31 votes in the electoral college," he said, adding significantly, "every political party has declared for woman suffrage in some way or other. It becomes a simple question whether you will incur the enmity of these women."

"Now, my friends," he continued, "as late as 1907 there were but two states west of the Missouri river that returned Democratic senators and now we have 15 of them. The question is, are you ready to surrender the 15 votes you have in the United States senate and turn them over to your political enemies?"

In conclusion, Senator Walsh said that he revealed no secret when he said President Wilson knew all about the suffrage plank.

"The president believes it vital to his success that it stay in the platform," he said. "I ask you in all the fervor of my soul, who is there wiser or more patriotic than he?"

Following Senator Walsh's speech, Gov. Ferguson was allowed five minutes for rebuttal. The vote was then taken and his minority report voted down, after which the original suffrage plank, as approved by the resolutions committee was unanimously adopted.

The Women Delegates.

The presence of the 15 women delegates at the Democratic convention not only added color to the affair, but changed the views of a number of the men delegates on the subject of political activity for women. For the women delegates were a fine, wholesome-looking lot and they fought just as enthusiastically for the best interests of the party as the men.

Three of them, Miss Mary E. Foy of California, Mrs. T. S. Talliaferro of Wyoming, and Mrs. W. A. Harris of Kansas, spoke before the resolutions committee in favor of the suffrage plank which the National American Woman Suffrage Association presented to the convention.

One of the other delegates, Mrs. Teresa E. Graham, of Idaho, was nominated by the National Democratic committee to be one of the committee that will notify Vice-President Marshall of his nomination.

Dig-in and Suction

The 'Chain' Tread Tire has the two necessary features to prevent skidding and slipping, particularly on wet pavements—the dig-in and the suction.

The height of the chain above the surface of the tire gives the dig-in quality.

The cup-like shape of the links gives the necessary suction to hold to the road.

ELIZABETHAN COOKING RECIPES

Shakespeare's Era Was Redolent of Delicious Foods That May Have Redounded to the Stratford Bard's Genius.

As a matter of fact, a very casual research into the food of Shakespeare's time shows a bewildering variety, and an overwhelming quantity of viands, ranging from peacocks stuffed and roasted and sent up to table with outspread tails, and swans also served in their feathers, to lampreys, such as proved the death of at least one over-indulgent monarch, while the wines of France, Spain and the Rhine were imported in large quantities.

In the reign of Richard II. there was a cookery book issued called the "Forme of Curry," in which we find recipes that in vagueness and variety of spices and flavors are without parallel. So pungent and numerous are the condiments required that we are forced to the conclusion that the people of the time must have had very tough palates and the digestion of the proverbial ostrich.

Take, for example, these recipes, typical of the rest and quite sufficient to make us understand why the soldiers and buccanniers of the "Virgin Queen" were so universally victorious. For surely men that assimilate these dishes could triumph over anything on earth!

Conger in Sauce.—Take the conger and scald him and smite him in pieces and seethe him. Take parsley, mint, pellitory, rosemary, sage, bread, salt, a little garlic and of cloves a little. Take it and grind it well. Strain it in vinegar through a cloth. Cast the fish in a vessel, add the liquor and serve it forth.

Tartee.—Take boiled pork. Hew it and pound it, and add thereto eggs, raisins, sugar, powder of ginger, white grease and small birds there among. Take prunes, saffron and salt and make a crust in a dish. Put the mixture therein, bake it well and serve it forth.

At the wedding banquet served for Henry V. and Catherine of France the following strange sweet was served:

Viande Royale.—Take Greek or Rhenish wine and honey clarified therewith. Take flower of rice, powder of ginger or pepper and cinnamon, cloves, saffron, sugar, mulberries and sandalwood and mix all together. Boil it and salt it and look that it be stiff.

Some irreverent beings declare that some of our best advertised breakfast foods are like sawdust and chopped hay. Well, even if it were true, you see here a kingly precedent, when royal brides feasted on sandalwood. But in the time of Henry V. the tables seem to have begun to acquire some foreign graces, so perhaps the revolted and intruded some of the sister dainties of her native land, which even in those far off days was renowned for its cookery.

At Henry V.'s wedding we read there was a jelly ornamented with the flowers of the columbine and a white cake garnished with hawthorn leaves and their shining red berries; two decorations consisting of figures of St. Katherine, the bride's patron saint, and crowning feast, "a subtlety of a tiger looking in a mirror." History telleth not of what this "subtlety" or the figures were composed nor whether, like his descendant of Limerick fame, there was a "smile on the face of the tiger."

Coming to Shakespeare's time, we find a sauce that was in great demand under the name of "Sauce Madame." Here is the recipe, and certainly it sounds like a rather substantial dish:

Sauce Madame.—Take sage and parsley, hyssop and savory, quinces and good pears, peeled, garlic and grapes. Take geese, cleanly washed, and fill the geese therewith and see that none escapes. Keep the grease that drops while roasting; roast it well. Take the grease and put it in a pipkin. When the geese are done enough take them off the spit and smite them into pieces. Take that which is within, hew it small, put it in the pipkin, add thereto a little wine, currants, powdered ginger and cinnamon and let it boil. Put the geese on platters, pour the sauce over all and serve it forth.

Hughes & Swinebroad, The Real Estate Men, Lancaster, Ky. PLANT BLACK WALNUT.

Very Desirable on the Farm Because of Lasting Qualities.

Because of the very high, lasting qualities of its wood and the moderately rapid rate of growth of the tree in good locations black walnut is one of the few most desirable trees to plant on the farm. Small patches of rough, gullied or unused land about the farm and narrow strips along fence rows and highways or corners of barnyards and stock lots make ideal places for planting the valuable tree. The method is simple, and the present heavy crop of nuts makes this year a most favorable time to begin work along this line. The region where walnut growing is practicable extends from southern New England west to the central states and south to South Carolina and along the northern portions of the Gulf states to Oklahoma.

The black walnut tree is comparatively free from insect attack, particularly the wood. The price of black walnut lumber in recent years has been consistently high. Another factor to be considered is the rapidly diminishing supply of walnut trees over practically its entire range in the United States, due to recent cutting in order to meet the demand for gunstock material. The tree yields durable wood, which may be used for posts and for a wide variety of purposes about the farm in case it is not sold in the lumber market.

To plant the nuts make a small hole with a mattock or hoe, drop one or two nuts in each hole and cover them with about two inches of fresh, firmly packed soil. For the larger areas a good spacing in forest plantations is to dig the holes eight feet apart each way or 8 by 10 feet, which amounts to 680 and 545 holes per acre for the two spacings. For small areas or along fence rows and highways the spacing should be about eight feet in the row unless permanent shade is desired, in which case the distance should be twenty feet during the early period of growth and subsequently increased to forty feet by removing the alternate trees. For purposes of nut production the trees should be spaced at distances of from forty to sixty feet apart and should be given a due amount of cultivation. Requests for information along this line should be addressed to the bureau of plant industry of the department of agriculture at Washington. The number of nuts required can easily be found by knowing approximately their quality, the area of ground to be treated and the spacing. Care should be taken not to plant under shade. Where the trees in the old wood lot are to be cut during the next year or two and are moderately open planting may be done in the winter, so as to get a start in advance of the removal later of the overhanging protection against early frosts and excessive drying of the soil in mid-summer.

While the best results are usually obtained by completely preparing the soil and cultivating it for a few years after planting, farm owners should be aware of the possibility of starting hundreds of young walnuts in their wood lots and elsewhere at the expense of only a little labor. This will be a good step in the process of securing useful and money making trees on parts of the farm which would perhaps otherwise be waste land, which is making no return at all to its owner.

HUNTERS TAKE NOTICE.

This Agreement Witnesseth; That in order to protect the game on our lands for a period of three years we bind ourselves not to hunt thereon, nor permit anybody else to do so, and we further agree to prosecute with diligence all persons who violate the game laws of Kentucky or trespass upon our lands for the purpose of hunting. And we further agree to act as Deputy Game Wardens for the purpose of carrying out this agreement. Except each of us have the right to kill rabbits on our farms or permit it to be done by another under our supervision, or the supervision of some responsible and reliable person selected by us.

GETTING A SHOCK

By M. QUAD Copyright, 1915, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Up to the age of fourteen young James Brice, whose father was a florist in the suburbs of a smart little city, was as bright a talker as you would find among a hundred youths. Then a high wind blew a shade tree down on him while he was hurrying along the streets. No bones were broken, and he was not badly bruised, but from the hour of that accident he began to stammer. The doctors said he had received a nervous shock and that if he ever recovered from it it would be from another nervous shock.

At the age of eighteen he went to work for and resided in the family of an uncle who lived on a farm. There were only four in the family, and the stammering would not be noticed nor criticized.

Miss Bessie Williams, a maid of fifteen years, climbed an apple tree one day in her father's back yard. Bessie had attained the height of a third branch when her hold gave way and she fell down with a kerplunk. After she had been revived and found very much alive it was noticed that she stammered.

After two or three years, in which the girl's ailment got no better, she was sent to live for awhile with her aunt in the country and was told to hope for a shock. It transpired, strangely enough, that the two stammerers found an aunt and an uncle living within a quarter of a mile of each other. They soon struck up an acquaintance.

Did James Brice and Bessie Williams fall in love? For sure they did.

A good sized river flowed within half a mile of the country homes of the two unfortunate. Young Mr. Brice bought a boat, and they often went rowing or fishing. After a few lessons in management Miss Williams learned how to use the oars and often went out by herself. A mile below the little landing there were a dam and a sawmill. This dam was not a point of danger except when the spring rains had brought about a freshet.

It was a day in April and the rains had been almost steady for a week when the sun came out soft and warm and Miss Williams' aunt said to her: "You have been moping around the house so long that it will do you good to get out. Why don't you go a-fishing? You have lines and poles and can dig your own bait. It is an ideal day for fishing. If James should come over I will tell him where you have gone, and he will join you."

Less than an hour later the girl was seeking to lure the big fish of the stream to swallow her bait. She fished from the bank for awhile, being a little frightened by the high waters which rushed on to the dam, but after half an hour's patient work without getting so much as a nibble she threw down her pole and decided to take a row.

The river was bringing down logs and brushwood, and it was a half sunken log which brought about the accident. The boat struck it with such a shock that it nearly upset, and it was during this excitement that both oars went overboard and were lost. It was in midstream, and what was the girl to do? There was nothing but to scream for help, and for a time her screams seemed useless. Then James Brice came running. There was no other boat, and for a moment he had no hope of rescue. Then, sure that the girl must float down and over the dam, he threw off coat and vest, pulled off his boots and plunged in to swim to her boat. He did not notice that the oars were gone, but thought her strength had given out.

He reached the boat to hear her say: "You idiot, you! Why didn't you run along the bank until you found an empty boat? Now we shall both go over the dam!"

James did not notice that she was speaking as plainly as anybody could, nor did she notice the improvement in his pronunciation as he replied: "I thought you still had the oars. Well, we'll have to go over together, and there may be one chance in ten for us. Let us keep as cool as we can. The men at the sawmill will put out a boat below the dam."

There were five minutes more before the boat reached the dam. Clinging to the side of the boat, James looked into her eyes, and Bessie returned his look. Not another word was spoken. With a rush the boat went over the dam, and those who were looking on from the shore never expected it to reappear except in fragments. But Providence willed it otherwise. It was partly smashed when it came to the surface again, and beside it floated two human figures, to be rescued five minutes later. They had come safely through the peril and had received the shock the doctors had talked about and they had hoped for. It was two days before they met again, and then the young man said:

"Bessie, why did you call me an idiot?"

"Because you are one," she replied.

"You ought to have known the oars were gone."

"You don't stammer any more," he said.

"Nor you."

"Nor did they. The shock had shocked the shock. In two weeks they had entirely recovered from their impediment of speech and were talking of what? Well, there is generally an engagement before marriage, you know."

Fresh Water For Chickens.

Chickens need a constant supply of fresh water, according to W. A. Lippincott, professor of poultry husbandry in the Kansas State Agricultural college. "Running water is best," says Professor Lippincott, "but if this is not available keep the water fresh. Add enough permanganate of potash to make it a wine red. This amount will act as an antiseptic in preventing the transmission of disease through the water and also aid in keeping down intestinal parasites."

When Corks Allow Leakage. After corks have been used a while they sometimes become so compressed that the contents of the bottle leak out. This may be remedied by putting the corks in boiling water and leaving them there until the water cools. They will then be as good as new and fit just as tightly.

Saving Your Mirrors. Sunshine is destructive to mirrors and often causes them to assume a milky appearance which can never be removed. In arranging your room be careful to place the mirror so it won't receive the direct rays of the sun.

Cheerfulness Wins. The men whom I have seen succeed best in life have always been cheerful and hopeful men, who went about their business with a smile on their faces and took their changes and chances in this mortal life like men, facing rough and smooth alike as they came.—Charles Kingsley.

Just What Did She Mean? Mrs. Jones was on a visit to her parents and wrote the following postcard to her next-door neighbor at home: "Will you do me a favor, while I am away? Will you put out a little food in our back porch every day or so, for the little stray cat I have been feeding? The cat will eat almost anything, but do not put yourself out."

Debt World Owes to the Press. In normal times, under ordinary, everyday conditions, the press has the immense advantage. Its facilities are incomparable. It sweeps the whole world and every day keeps alive in us a sense of common interest in the affairs of our community.—Dr. Albert Shaw.

Whence "Gringo." In Spanish "gringo," pronounced greengo, means gibberish or unintelligible chatter. American Spaniards applied it to Americans and Englishmen in contempt because their language sounded like gibberish to the Spaniards. Now the term is applied in contempt to Americans in the same way that Americans speak of Mexicans as greasers.

British Lawmakers. The British house of parliament consists of 470 members (465 for England, 30 for Wales, 72 for Scotland and 103 for Ireland), elected for seven years by secret ballot. No one under twenty-one years of age is eligible. All clergymen of the Church of England, ministers of the Church of Scotland and Roman Catholic clergymen are disqualified from sitting as members; all government contractors and all sheriffs and returning officers for the localities for which they act are disqualified both from voting and from sitting as members. Every voter must be twenty-one years of age, be the proprietor of a house or a piece of land, or pay an annual rent of $50.
